WILL PROBATED.

Majority of His Estate Bequeathed to His Wife.

Other Beneficiaries Named in the Will —Estate Will Amount to About
$30,000 or $35,000.

The will of the late Dr. W. W. Joyce was admitted to probate Wednesday in the county court. It is estimated that the estate of the deceased will amount to about $30,000 or $35,000, and his wife, Mrs. Emma E. Joyce, is the largest beneficiary. He bequeathed to her all of the land lying on the east side of "John's Road" in the 10th district (the home place), with the residence, household furniture, etc. In addition she is also given $15,000 in money, or its equivalent in good notes and bonds. At her death the will specifies that $10,000 of this bequest is to revert to his living nephews and nieces.

To Otis Davis Gray he bequeathes $1,000, to be put in trust until he shall have attained the age of 21 years, and to the following he bequeathes $100 each: Mrs. Anna Hughes, Mrs. Bertha Wilkes, Miss Annie Joyce, Eva Johnson and Mamie Hill; Messrs. W. E. McKennon, Hazel Padgett, A. S. Page, M. W. Kinzer, W. R. King, James Fly, Clarence Joyce and E. T. Estes, and Revs. H. S. McBride and E. L. Gregory. To E. E. Estes and wife he bequeathes one dwelling house and lot, and one store house and lot in Sawdust Valley, and the remainder of the estate is to be equally divided among his nephews and nieces, of whom there are about eleven, those living in Maury county being Messrs. W. C. Joyce and John Bragg, and Mrs. J. T. Batts.

The wife of the deceased, Mrs. Emma E. Joyce, and Mr. Alex E. Hill, are appointed executrix and executor without bond.

The will was made December 17, 1900, and was witnessed by Messrs. B. D. Joyce and H. N. Mayberry.

TOTALLY DESTROYED.

Beech Grove School House, Near Jameson's Store, Burns.

The Beech Grove school house, which is situated on the Carter's Creek place about half a mile from Jameson's store, was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. A fire had just been started in the stove, and in the absence of any protection, those who had congregated could only stand by and watch the destruction of the building. A portion of the furniture and books were saved. There was no insurance.

BARBAROUS DEED.

Indiana Mob Hangs a Negro, Then Burns His Lifeless Corpse.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., Feb. 26.—Justice, swift and terrible, was meted out today to George Ward, the negro who murdered Miss Ida Finkelstein, the school teacher, by shooting her with a shotgun and cutting her throat yesterday. In a few hours after his arrest an angry mob battered down the doors of the jail, dragged the miserable prisoner to the Wabash bridge, several squares away, and hanged him to the bridge draw. Not content with the hanging, the crowd cut the corpse down, and, laying it on a sand bar under the bridge, kindled a fire and cremated the remains.

The souvenir band was on hand in force and fragments of the wretched murderer are now scattered broadcast. One man, while the feet still protruded from the flames, offered $1 for a toe from "the nigger's foot."

A venturesome youth, drawing a knife from his pocket, made a dash for the prize. He quickly amputated a toe, delivered the goods and got his money.

As the bones began to crumble and fall apart the fragments were drawn from the fire and carried away.

At 3 o'clock there was nothing left of the body except a small section of the trunk and the back of the head. Busy hands kept the burning faggots. Women came to the scene by scores and elbowed their way into the inner circle of spectators, unmoved by the horror of the spectacle.

As public sentiment upholds the lynching, no prosecutions are expected.

WHY NOT COLUMBIA?

Heinz, the Pickel Man, and a Farm-ture Concern Seeking Locations.

Mr. John W. Fry is in receipt of two letters from Mr. G. A. Park, division Freight and Passenger Agent of the L. & N., at Owensboro, Ky., which should be of interest to Columbia and Maury county.

One of the letters states that H. J. Heinz & Co., the famous pickle and food product men, are looking for a location in the South, where they can establish a plant and distributing point. Such a plant, it is claimed, would benefit the farmers a great deal and give employment to a number of people.

The other letter states that the Manchester Furniture Co., of Manchester, O., is also looking for a site to locate a manufacturing plant.

Mr. Park suggests that Columbia make an effort to secure these enterprises. The suggestion is certainly a good one, and it remains for some one to take hold of the matter and push it along.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Mr. McFerrin had a surprise in store for the prayer meeting audience at the First Methodist church Wednesday night, and a delightful one it was. Dr. Martin, representing the McClure Publishing Co., was present, and being called upon delighted the audience with an entertaining and instructive half hour's talk as one could wish to hear. The Doctor has traveled everywhere and observed much; and from what he has seen and heard in his wanderings around the world, he believes there is a better day coming by-and-by, the dawn of which may already be seen from the hilltops. In three cities of India, nine years ago, more than five thousand women mounted the funeral pyre, and with the heads of their dead husbands in their laps, were burned to death, in conformity with a custom of the country. The spread of the gospel of Jesus Christ, by consecrated missionaries, had wrought that change. Ten years ago there were something over seven thousand saloons in the city of Chicago; now there are only about half that number, and their number is decreasing there and elsewhere and everywhere, and their days are numbered. Not only in religious circles, but in social circles and business circles as well, a strong undercurrent of thought was creating a public sentiment that in the near future, and nearer perhaps than some of us think, would drive the saloons out of our towns and cities and the rum traffic out of business. It had already driven self-respecting men, and those who respect the social position of their families, out of the business. Christianity was working that change. Dr. Martin's business will detain him here several days longer, and he has consented to lecture at the First Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock; and we think it would be safe to say that every single individual, young and old, who heard him last evening, will be more than pleased to hear him again. His subject Sunday night will be the "Steepes of Life, and How to Climb Them." It is a lecture of especial interest to the young.

At a meeting held Wednesday night at the First Presbyterian church, a "Young Men's League" was formed, the purpose of which is to furnish entertainment at the Sunday evening services, and thereby increase the attendance and interest. The following were elected officers of the League: Dr. J. T. Meadors, President; U. H. Foster, vice-President; Jas. L. McGaw, Secretary. The following committees were appointed: Programme committee—Wm. Dale, Jr., Connor Akin, Wm. Evans; Invitation committee—Jake Harlan, A. O. Kennedy, Wm. Howard; U. H. Foster, Joe B. Borum, Briggs McLemore; Music committee—Connor Akin, Dr. J. T. Meadors, A. B. Rains, Joe Towler, U. H. Foster; Ushers—William Evans, Bruce Cochran, Wm. Wilson, Wm. Howard. The next meeting of the League will be held next Wednesday night, after prayer meeting, when arrangements for their work will be completed.

The meeting at the South Columbia Methodist church, conducted by Joe M. Ramsey, was brought to a close Sunday night. There were several additions to the church, and the members were greatly revived.

LYNNVILLE.—Rev B. D. Kennedy, pastor of the Brick church and Cornerville Presbyterian churches, has received and accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Troy, Mo.

Rev W. B. Capers, the new Rector of St. Peter's church, will arrive about March 6. Lenten services are being held at this church every Monday and Friday afternoon.

Elder Logue, of Lynnville, and Elder J. Paul Slayden, exchanched pulpits Sunday, Elder Logue preaching two interesting sermons in the Christian church of this city.

St. Peter's Parish Society will meet in the Sunday-school room of the church next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Dr. A. J. Holt of Nashville, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday, morning and evening.

LYNCHING PROBABLE.

Posse After Negro Who Committed a Criminal Assault.

LIBERTY, TENN., Feb. 27.—A posse of angry men is scouring the country around Liberty in search of John Todd, a negro accused of criminally assaulting Ada Hays, a fifteen-year-old girl, the daughter of a respectable farmer, whose home is one mile west of Liberty.

The girl gave birth to a mulatto child to-day and alleged that Todd had assaulted her last summer at the point of a pistol. The girl said she screamed at once and her assailant threatened her with instant death if she continued her outcry, and after committing the deed he said if she ever told of the crime it would cost her life.

There is much excitement.
